A MADDE PEEK BEHIN

Gentlemen, I propose that George Washington lead our young nation and eventually become our first President! He is compassionate and a true believer in the ideals that will make our country great!

I second the motion! Er—what's keeping Washington so long at home?

One of his Slaves is missing!

Mr. Hale, why would a School Teacher like yourself want to give up his career to sneak behind enemy lines and spy?

Well, frankly, I could use the rest!

Have you ever seen what goes on in a war?!

Have YOU ever seen what goes on in a CLASSROOM?!!

BUTTON GWINETT, WHERE ARE YOU, NOW THAT WE NEED YOU?!

There's ol' Ben Franklin, making out again! How does he do it? Look at him—short, fat and near-sighted! I don't know what he's got!

Obviously, it's his intelligence and wit! He is supposed to be a fantastic conversationalist! Listen...

An apple a day keeps the doctor away! Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise! Feed a cold and starve a fever! A bird in the hand...

Gentlemen, we have a terrible problem! What if the British decide to take New York?!

We've got an even WORSE problem...! What if they let us KEEP it?!!

How did you do in school today, Paul?

I flunked an American History exam! And believe me, it wasn't easy!

How can you flunk American History? There IS no American History yet!

I TOLD you it wasn't easy!

DELINEATOR: MORTIMER DRUCKER

SCRIVENER: LAWRENCE SIEGEL

My friends, we must make sure that the premiums in our fight for Liberty are fully paid up! Else, our beneficiaries... the American people... will be left out in the cold if, God forbid, anything should happen to us!

What makes you think that John Hancock plans on going into the Insurance Business after the war...?

I don't know! Just call it a crazy hunch!

What is Tom Paine doing... sitting under a tree during an electrical storm, getting soaked unto his skin...?!

Writing a pamphlet called "Common Sense"!

Gentlemen, Tom Jefferson says he's written a stirring first draft of "The Declaration Of Independence"! Tom, you want to read it...?

Certainly! Here goes! "When in the course of human events..."

... it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands...

... which have connected them with another...

... because a certain King is a doody-head—

All this hot air and screaming and stupid politicians in Congress! How long can a country survive with that...?

I'd say... at least 200 years!

Powerful and moving!

Strong and effective!

Lyrical and poetic!

Now hold it right there!!

Whom in the course of human events become

REBELLING DEPT.

War makes some people happy, some people unhappy, and some people just plain confused.
To explain why, here is . . .

DELINEATOR: PAUL COKER, JNR. SCRIVENER: LEWIS SILVERSTONE

The MADDE Revolutionary War Primer

CHAPTER 1.

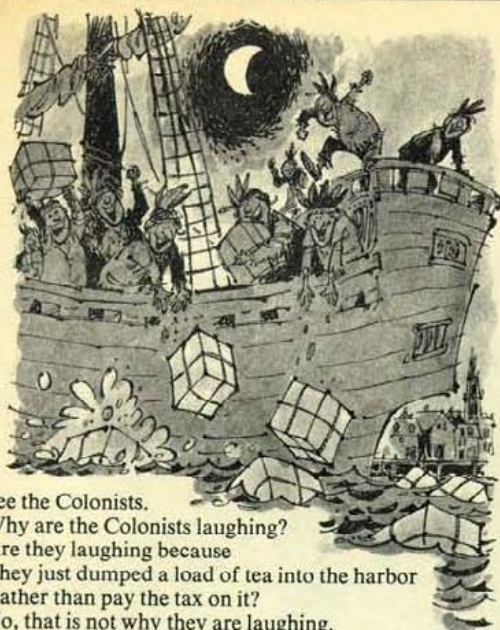

See the Englishmen.
They are happy.
Happy, happy, happy.
Their country has declared war on the Colonists.
Are these Englishmen happy because they are signing up
To fight the Colonists?
Don't be an idiot!
Their Government is hiring German Soldiers
To fight the Colonists!
That is why the Englishmen are happy!

CHAPTER 2.

See the General.
He is Commander of the entire American Army.
He is loved and admired by his countrymen.
But still, the General is unhappy.
Why is the General unhappy?
Because Patrick Henry said,
"Give me liberty or give me death!"
And Nathan Hale said,
"I regret that I have but one life to give to my country!"
And John Paul Jones said,
"I have not yet begun to fight!"
But General Washington's speech writers
Haven't been able to come up with one decent quote.
That's why the General is unhappy!

See the Colonists.
 Why are the Colonists laughing?
 Are they laughing because
 They just dumped a load of tea into the harbor
 Rather than pay the tax on it?
 No, that is not why they are laughing.
 There is also a tax on whiskey.
 But did the Colonists dump the whiskey into the harbor
 Rather than pay the tax on it?
 Don't be ridiculous!
 The Colonists found something better to do
 With the whiskey!
That's why the Colonists are laughing!

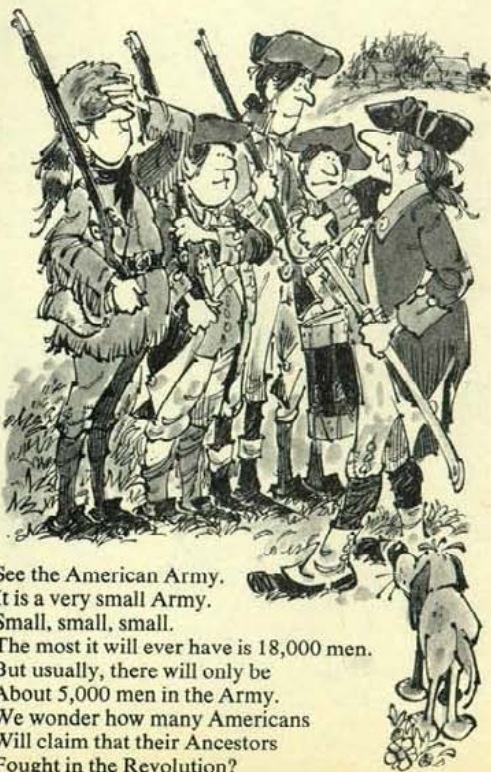

See the Indians.
 They are not happy.
 They are not laughing.
 They cannot even squeeze out a smile.
 Why are the Indians unhappy?
 Because if they fight for the wrong army,
 They are going to suffer.
 Well, we've got news for them!
 If they fight for the right army,
 They're still going to suffer.
 Too bad they were here first.
 Otherwise, they could go back where they came from.

CHAPTER 5.

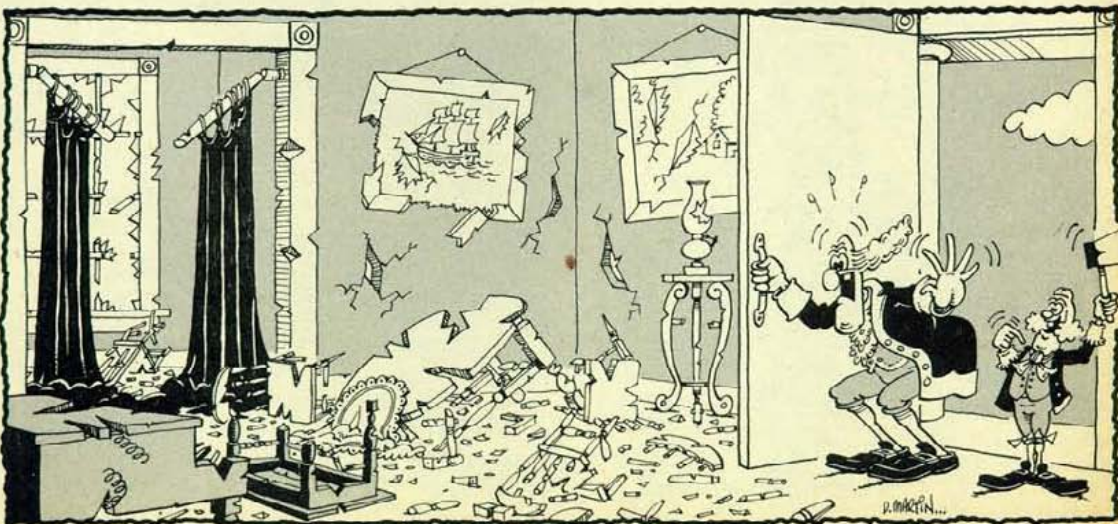

See the man.
 His name is Haym Salomon.
 Mr. Salomon is a Patriot.
 But Mr. Salomon is confused.
 Mr. Salomon has lent Congress a lot of money
 So that they can pay for the Revolution.
 Does this mean that Mr. Salomon
 Gets special privileges?
 Of course not!
 In a Democracy, nobody gets special privileges!
 Then Mr. Salomon has the same rights as everyone else?
 Not quite!
 Mr. Salomon is Jewish, and he lives in New York.
 In New York, Jews aren't allowed to vote.
That's why Mr. Salomon is confused!

CHAPTER 6.

See the American Army.
 It is a very small Army.
 Small, small, small.
 The most it will ever have is 18,000 men.
 But usually, there will only be
 About 5,000 men in the Army.
 We wonder how many Americans
 Will claim that their Ancestors
 Fought in the Revolution?

A MADDE COLONIST'S

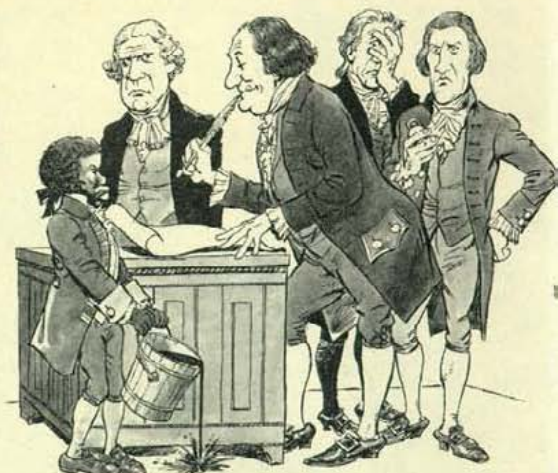

DELINEATOR: DON ANGELO TORRES

George Washington

From Bunker Hill to Valley Forge
The Colonies rely on George;
By far he is our greatest living resident;
We'll stick with him, because we know
He's sure to beat the British foe;
He'd better—or he's got no shot at President.

John Hancock

John Hancock's not like other folks—
He signs his name with giant strokes,
Which takes a lot of ink and great endurance;
The size of his immortal name
Has earned him everlasting fame—
Let's hope it's never used to sell insurance.

The Marquis de Lafayette

In years to come, we won't forget
This fancy Frenchman, Lafayette;
His will to fight we can't be overlooking;
Despite his help to free our land,
He wants us all to understand
The French don't hate the British—just their cooking.

Nathan Hale

It takes a special kind of guy
To fool the British as a spy,
And Nathan Hale has got the smarts to do it;
He's like a fox, a super whiz,
At finding where the info is,
Then dashing home and—Oops! Looks like he blew it!

GARDEN OF VERSES

SCRIVENER: FRANKLIN JACOBS

Thomas Paine

Tom Paine, we know, is quite extreme—
Just hear him rant and rave and scream
'Bout all the things in life that he resents;
He wants to even up the score,
To get us in a shooting war;
Too bad he doesn't have much Common Sense.

Benedict Arnold

George Washington has got a score
Of Generals to fight the war—
Some do their job, while others prove a bust;
We can't be sure how each will do,
But still we know one thing is true—
That Benedict's a man that we can trust.

Patrick Henry

When Patrick Henry starts to shout,
There's no one who can drown him out;
He's got the lungs to start a major riot;
You'd think old Pat would lose his breath
From screaming, "Liberty or Death!"
We'd go for either one if he'd keep quiet.

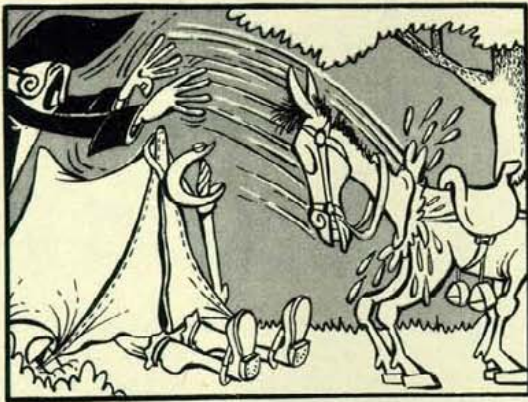

Lord Cornwallis

When Lord Cornwallis lost the war
And sailed back to the British shore,
He told a special Parliament committee:
"We had the rabble on the run;
"With any luck we would have won,
"But half our troops were mugged in New York City."

MILITIA'S MISCHIEF DEPT.

Hello! I'm Benjamin Franklin . . . statesman, author and inventor of funny-looking eye glasses! In these troubled times, I thought it would be inspiring to see what the gallant defenders of our freedom are doing! So I've come here to interview . . .

MADDE'S MINUTE MAN OF THE YEAR

The British are beasts!
When I think of how they attack young women
. . . how they force
themselves upon them
. . . and molest them . . .
I get FURIOUS!!

Have they done
those terrible things to you?

NO!! Why do you think I'm so FURIOUS!!?

Remember, men
. . . when you go into battle,
you must attack,
attack, ATTACK!
You must NEVER
look back!

Tell me, Sir . . . exactly why shouldn't the men look back?

They might see something that's bad for their morale!

Like WHAT . . . ?

Like ME . . .
galloping home!

SCRIVENER: STANLEY HART

DELINEATOR: MAJOR GEORGE WOODBRIDGE

Ah . . . here is a Minute Man—one of those brave souls who stand vigilant, ready to defend our cherished liberties! Hello,
Mr. Minute Man!

Will you knock it off,
Pops!
I'm napping!

Hmmm! Maybe this will wake him up!

THE BRITISH
ARE COMING!
THE BRITISH ARE COMING!

So?!!
What do you expect ME to do about it . . .
put out fruit?!!

Let's start at the beginning!
You got the name "Minute Man" because it only takes you one minute to get ready to fight . . .
correct . . . ?

WRONG, Specs! It takes 9 minutes to put on these tight
pants and socks,
10 minutes to button this vest and coat, and then 21 minutes for a hot sit-down breakfast!

So
the name
"Minute Man" is NOT exactly accurate!

No . . .
but it's a heck of a lot catchier than "Forty Minute Man"!
